

It makes no sense to destroy the public access and use of the Amateur HF frequencies with Broad Band over Power Lines. Please reject the BBPL and ask the industry to come up with an alternative means of Broad Band transmission that will NOT interfere with existing methods of communication.